Annual Halloween Costume Party Nov. 1

Ghosts and goblins as well as people right out of history will make the scene for the annual Halloween costume party at Indian Lake Lodge, Saturday, November 1.

Each year the costumes get better and the party livelier, so mark the date now on your calendar and plan to be on hand for a great evening. There will be prizes and fun for everyone.

Prizes will be awarded for the prettiest, ugliest, most original, and the most authentic couple in history. An additional prize will be awarded to any prize winner who is a season pass holder at Indian Lake.

Remember, the more people that dress up, the better the party. So get out your favorite costume, or make up a new one, and be at the Lodge for the annual Halloween party Nov 1.

HAWAIIAN LUAU FRIDAY, SKI FASHION SHOW SATURDAY

Big Weekend at Lodge Oct. 24-25

There's a big weekend on tap at the Lodge October 24-25 with the Hawaiian Luau and the annual ski fashion show.

The Luau ($10 per person, admission by ticket only) gets under way Friday, October 24 with a cocktail hour at 8 p.m. Dinner will be served about 9 p.m. and will feature such island delicacies as whole roast pig with apple stuffing, sweet and sour island spare ribs, chicken coconut isle, rumaki, luau sweet potatoes, fried polynesian rice, shrimp tempura, fried bananas, fresh Hawaiian pineapple, and many more native island dishes.

For showtime there will be Jim Hollowood and his Hawaiian Band, plus several hula dancers.

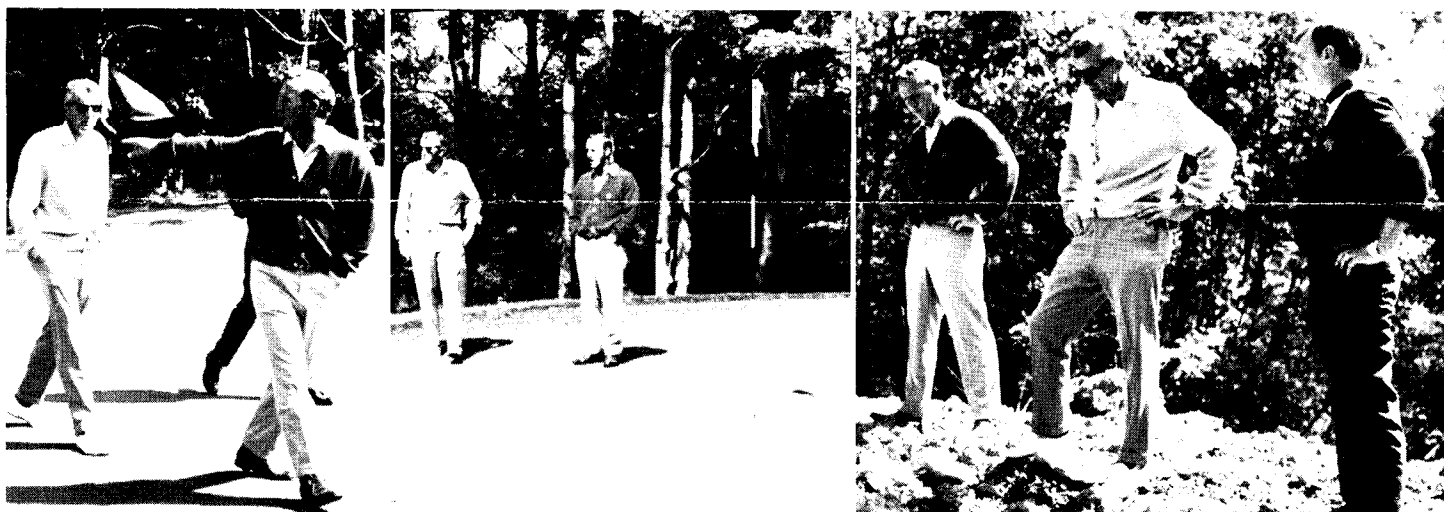

The spirit of aloha will be yours to enjoy, so get your tickets before they're all gone. Only 125 tickets will be sold. Prizes will be awarded for best costumes and best hula dancers.

Fashion Show, Sat., Oct. 25

The ski fashion show is one of the most popular social events at Indian Lake. And, this year Linda and Willi Klein, directors of the ski program here, promise another exciting show with the latest in skiwear. You'll see sharp, slick colors, over-the-boot pants, shaplier parkas, and even the luxury of fur in functional styling. Everything for a great 69-70 ski season.

Come and enjoy a big weekend at Indian Lake, Friday and Saturday, October 24-25.

Arnold Palmer Checks New 18-hole Golf Course

Arnold Palmer, architect for Indian Lake's new 18-hole golf course on the peninsula, made an inspection of the championship layout last month with James W. McIntyre, executive secretary of Indian Lake. Darrell Brown, Arnie's pilot, also made the trip to Indian Lake and accompanied the two around the new course. Palmer said he was quite pleased with progress made so far on both the front and back nine.

While touring the back nine, which has had a limited amount of play this summer by only the fairway lot owners and permanent season pass holders, Palmer pointed out a few things he'd like to see done as part of the regular maintenance program. But other than that he thought the course was in good shape. Following his inspection of the back nine holes, Palmer tramped the wooded fairways of the front nine and outlined specific design features.

Reservations Only

Live Lobster Party Planned

Imagine! Live lobsters hauled in from the cool waters off the Atlantic coast and flown directly to Indian Lake for a fresh lobster dinner.

Well, that's what Indian Lakers who make reservations will have on Friday, November 14. The fresh lobster will be served with drawn butter, baked potato and a salad. Chef Jack Prout said there will also be a cheese and fruit board.

Due to the difficulty of trying to determine how many persons would enjoy a fresh lobster dinner, and because only one trip will be made to fly the live lobsters to Indian Lake, it is necessary to have advance reservations. No reservations will be accepted after November 10.

Price of a complete lobster dinner is $6.95 per person. Make your reservations now.

Lifesaving

Swim Classes Set For Holidays

Young swimmers aspiring to be lifeguards, or anyone interested in receiving a life saving certificate recognized by the American Red Cross will have a good opportunity to fulfill the requirements during the upcoming Christmas vacation period beginning December 20 and continuing through January 4.

Swimming classes based on the requirements set by the Red Cross will be held during the vacation period with the first class starting at 10 a.m., Saturday, December 20. In order to meet lifesaving standards, it will be necessary to hold 15 two-hour classes during the entire period. A lifesaving certificate is necessary for anyone to qualify as a lifeguard.

Classes will be conducted by Cheryl Stutzman, an accredited swimming instructor who directed the successful swimming program this past summer at the Lodge pool.

Cost of the lifesaving course is $15 for season pass holders, and $30 for non-season pass holders. Register at the Lodge office.

Private swimming lessons by appointment only can also be arranged during the holiday period.

Private Pilot Rating For Rick Ringler

Eighteen-year-old Rick Ringler of Greensburg steps out of the single engine airplane he used to pass his flight test August 21 and become a licensed private pilot.

Among the first to congratulate Rick on his achievement was his father, Carl, who also holds a private pilot's license.

Rick started taking flying lessons at Indian Lake in the summer of 1968. He passed the FAA's written examination last August and took his solo flight a month later. Carl has had his license for almost three years and is now working on an instrument rating. He is the proud owner of a Beechcraft Bonanza.

The Ringlers, including Mrs. Charlene, are one of the most active families at Indian Lake. Golfing, water skiing, flying, dancing at the Lodge . . . you name it and the Ringlers are in there swinging.

MAIL SERVICE INCREASED

The Post Office in Central City has expanded its mail service to Indian Lake and is now making deliveries to parts of the peninsula.

There are 18 permanent and 10 temporary residents now receiving carrier mail service. Mail is also delivered to the offices at the Lodge and Air-Park. The Post Office will continue to expand the service throughout the development as the need increases.

Remember, if you want your mail delivered, the postal regulations require patrons to provide and erect at their own expense rural mail boxes which meet official specifications.

Here are a few tips from the good people at your Post Office.

- Whenever possible boxes must be located so that carrier's vehicle is off pavement when serving them.
- Name must be painted on box in letters not less than one-inch high.
- Post must be neat and of adequate strength and size.
- Approach to mail box should be a hard level surface (gravel, cinders, stone).
