Big Fourth of July Weekend at Indian Lake

There will be something for everyone during the big Fourth of July weekend at Indian Lake.

Wednesday evening, July 3, Bill Wentz will be at the organ in the Lodge to entertain while you enjoy a lazy cocktail, relaxing dinner or some friendly conversation.

Fireworks

Thursday evening, July 4, the whole family can watch the colorful fireworks which will be presented from the Peninsula Point beginning at 9:00 p.m. After the show you can stop at the Lodge for a late night snack and your favorite beverage.

Friday evening, July 5, the Melody Men will be at the Lodge with music for your dancing and listening pleasure. If you really want to impress your guests, see Nick or Skip. They'll make sure your evening is a complete success.

Teenage Dance

For the teenagers, there will be a dance in the banquet room beginning at 9:00 p.m. The "Hangmen" will keep everyone "hangin' loose" with their music.

Hayride

On Saturday, July 6, there will be a hay ride for children up to 12 years of age. It will start out at 8:00 p.m. from the Riding Stable and return at 7:30 p.m.

Meanwhile, back at the Lodge, Jimmy Russell will be at the organ for your listening and dining pleasure. He'll be followed by Nicky and His Rhythm Boys who will provide some really good dance music.

Dinner

By Sunday, July 7, Mom might be a little tired after the long five-day weekend. So, why not bring the whole family to the Lodge and enjoy a delightful meal from the buffet? Or you can have a delicious family style dinner.

Whatever your plans, have a safe and happy Fourth of July weekend.

Entertainment Night July 13 To Feature Return Engagement For Gillette-Thunhurst Vocal Duo

Betty Gillette and Bill Thunhurst, the vocal duo who performed so magnificently for Indian Lakers in April, will highlight the big variety show at Indian Lake Lodge Saturday, July 13.

Indian Lakers should also make special note of the fact that this July show is being held the second Saturday of the month instead of the usual first Saturday.

Bill and Betty are a husband and wife team who met while both were appearing with Mary Martin in the Broadway show "South Pacific." They have each appeared in many Broadway shows, "Arms and the Girl" with Nanette Fabray, "Miss Liberty" with Eddie Albert, and "Pal Joey," to name a few.

Summer Fun

Summer is great at Indian Lake even if it's experiencing a wipe-out as young Bruce DeVilling is doing while enjoying the fun of his surfboard.

Bruce is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank DeVilling of 1608 Trollis Drive, Bridgeville, Pennsylvania.

The Ladies Golf Association of Indian Lake will sponsor a Hole-In-One Tournament Saturday and Sunday, July 20-21, benefit of Indian Lake Fishing Club.

In their show of April 6 at the Lodge they sang top hits from such outstanding Broadway shows as "Camelot," "Fiddler on the Roof" and "Sound of Music."

Their accompanist is talented pianist Nancy Cabetto, also from Pittsburgh. She has directed several shows at the Winchester-Thurston School.

Jimmy Russell and Bill Schaefer will play for your dining pleasure beginning at 7:00 p.m. Music for dancing will be provided by the 5 Keys and The Melody Men.

Specify Room With Reservation

When making dinner reservations it is important to specify either the banquet room or main dining room. After one room is filled, no more reservations can be accepted.

Shows will be presented in both rooms with the first show beginning at 10:00 p.m. in the banquet room and the late show at 11:30 in the main dining room.

Only dinner reservations are being accepted at the Lodge. The cover charge of $5.00 per person does not apply to Indian Lake Lodge Members (season pass holders) and their guests.

Don't forget, the entertainment night is July 13 instead of the usual first Saturday of the month.

"There's No Business Like Show Business"

Lake Stonycreek Party June 28

The fourth annual Lake Stonycreek Party will be held Friday, June 28 at Indian Lake Lodge. "There's No Business Like Show Business" is the theme for this year's party.

Polly Poorbaugh, the untiring socialite and friendly neighbor devoted to Lake Stonycreek and Indian Lake, again has assembled an array of talented entertainers to rival an Ed Sullivan Show.

Among the featured acts will be the Shade Elementary School Square Dancers who will be performing under the direction of Indian Laker Judy Kovach.

The Black Diamond Drum and Bugle Corps, winner of several major awards, including first place in the recent Pennsylvania Lions Championship, will be on hand to go through their precise maneuvers.

Also included on the program is the accomplished dance team of Joyce and Mike Tinnerello.

Jimmy Russell, everyone's favorite on the organ, will play during the cocktail hour.

After dinner the professional, non-professional musicians—Karl Poorbaugh, Hans Stumpf, Dr. Hay and company—will swing out with the dance music.

The party promises to be another fast-moving affair for the swinging property owners of Lake Stonycreek.

Teen Club Fund Raising Dance July 5

Indian Lake Teen Club will sponsor a "Teen Dance" Friday, July 5 at Indian Lake Lodge. Proceeds from the dance will go towards financing future projects of the newly organized club.

Music for the dance will be furnished by The Hangmen, a group that guarantees "Music to Swing By."

Dancing will begin at 9:00 p.m. in the banquet room. Admission is $1.00 per person.

$500.00 in Prize Money

K. H. Wagner Memorial Golf Tournament Set For Saturday, July 27

The second annual K. H. Wagner Memorial Golf Tournament will be held Saturday, July 27 at Indian Lake.

$500.00 in prizes will be awarded to the top five scorers with the winner receiving $175.00 and the runnerup $125.00. Third place will be good for $95.00 while fourth place will receive $65.00. Fifth place money is $40.00. Certificates will be redeemable through the golf pro shop or Indian Lake Lodge.

The tournament was established last year in honor of the late K. H. Wagner, a community leader influential in the initial development of Indian Lake.

Half Handicap

An 18-hole, one-day event, the tournament is open to all residents of Indian Lake, Lake Stonycreek and members of Indian Lake Lodge.

The tournament will be played under a one-half handicap. To establish a handicap for the tournament, golfers must have scores for at least 54 holes recorded with the pro shop.

Butler Defending Champ

Jack Butler won the title last year with an 80-3-77. This was three strokes better than Steve Balogh who finished with an 83-3-80.

Francis Cmar finished third with 81-0-81. Bill Baltzer, 90-8-82 and Carl Sprock, 93-11-82 tied for fourth place honors. Bill Lascheid took fifth place with 88-5-83.

Being the richest of all Indian Lake tournaments, another strong field is expected again this year. Don't wait until the last week to establish a handicap. Turn your scores in at the pro shop now.

Slalom Skier Prepares For Big Race July 14

Bonnie Shumar, 15, of Murfreesboro comes ashore after completing a slalom run in preparation for the first annual Indian Lake Slalom Water Ski Championship to be held Sunday, July 14.

Pittsburgh Press Golf Editor Talks About Palmer's Design of New Indian Lake Course

(Ray Kienzl, Pittsburgh Press Golf Editor, wrote this account of Arnold Palmer's design of Indian Lake's new 18-hole championship golf course. The article appeared in the May 5 edition of the Pittsburgh Press and is being reprinted in The Smoke Signal with Mr. Kienzl's permission).

Anybody who has ever hit a golf ball probably harbors a desire to design a course of his own.

How many times have you driven in the country and spotted some land that immediately made you visualize how it would look with a golf course on it?

As a man who has played courses throughout the world, Arnie Palmer is one of those dreamers. And two years from now he will have his ideas of what constitute a good course right out in the open where everybody can see them.

Palmer, the architect, already is in the midst of his first project, the course at Indian Lake, a resort in Buckstown, 13 miles east of Somerset.

The planned 7000-yard layout will be unique in several ways:

✓ None of the fairways will be adjacent, the holes trailing each other Indian file in the form of a figure eight.

✓ An airport is situated in the middle of the back nine with a tunnel running under the airstrip from the No. 13 green to the No. 14 tee.

✓ Several holes will have a tree or trees right smack in the middle of the fairway.

Why the trees? Palmer was asked.

"I just wanted to see what it would be like," he answered. "I left them in because once you take them out you can't put them back. You can cut them down in five minutes."

Jim McIntyre, an engineer who lives in Friedens, Pa., and one of the four developers of Indian Lake, was responsible for getting Palmer to undertake the project. It took a little doing.

Arnie Finally Convinced

"He thought we were interested only in using his name," said McIntyre, "until I convinced him we really wanted him to do the job. I think he intends to pattern it after Wentworth in England, which he said from end to end was the best golf course he had ever seen."

Palmer denies he ever said that or that he is using Wentworth as a pattern.

"I'm not using any course as a pattern," he said. "But if it will resemble any course, it will be Augusta National (site of the Masters). It will be long and narrow with no rough. The fairways will go right into the trees."

More than half of the holes on the back nine were sculptured and seeded last year, Palmer fitting them into the natural wooded contour of the land. The entire course is expected to be ready for play in 1970.

What has been unveiled so far is a little frightening for anybody unaccustomed to hitting long, straight drives.

No. 10 measures 540 yards, No. 11 is 440, No. 12 is 200, No. 13 is 360, No. 14 is 400, No. 15 is 160, No. 16 is 400, No. 17 is 360 and No. 18 is 540. And the drive off the tee calls for precision, which may be asking too much of the community's home owners and hotel guests who will play the course.

Besides the ever-present trees along the sides, No. 10, 11, 13 and 18 have trees in the middle of the fairway, either in the driving area or at the dogleg leading to the green. No. 11 green will be open only on the left with water and sand guarding the other sides.

Course No Ego Builder

It will be no course to build the ego of members or guests, but it should be one anybody would want to tackle.

McIntyre's partners are William Baltzer, a contractor from Shanksville; Robert Long, a heavy equipment owner from Central City, and James Neilan, an engineer from Somerset.

They have the equipment and Palmer takes advantage of it.

For instance, on one of his frequent trips to the layout last year he had the No. 10 green torn up and reshaped, giving it more roll and at least four good pin placements, his plan for every green.

At Augusta every green has four pin placements and maybe someday Indian Lake will have a tournament of its own. Already they're dreaming.

Cmar Wins Golf Classic

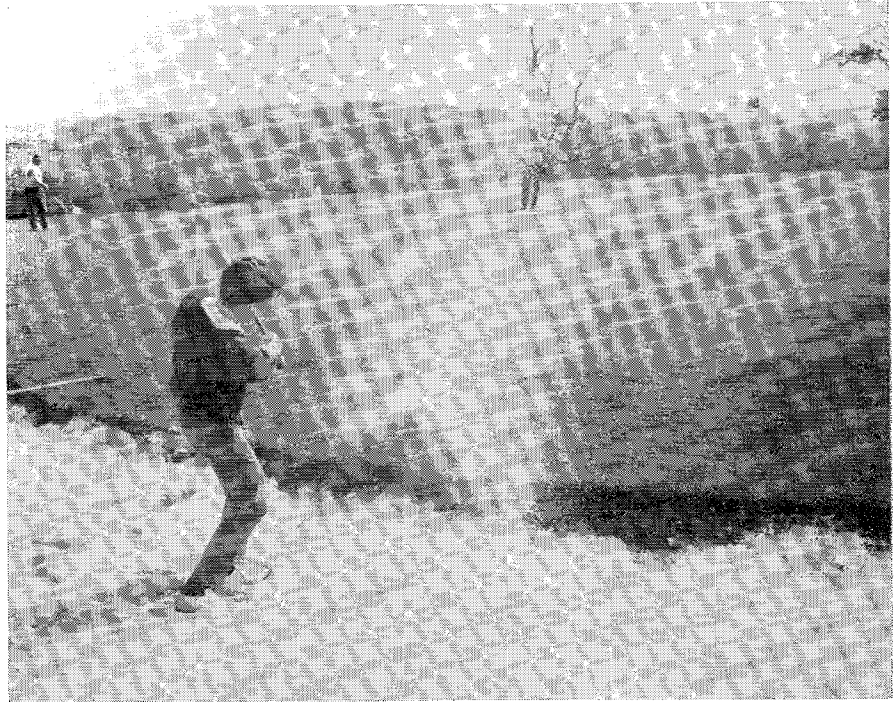

Francis Cmar of Latrobe staggered in with a gross score of 81, good for a net 72, and won Indian Lake's fourth annual Memorial Day Golf Classic by a slim one-stroke margin of Tom Sproull. Sproull had a gross of 84. The tournament was played under the Callaway Handicap.

Tied for third place honors were Al McKolosky 92-74, Don Landis 87-74 and Dave Watson 84-74.

Rainy weather cut down on the number of golfers participating, but for those who did play they found the tournament to be a good tune-up for the big K. H. Wagner Memorial Tournament scheduled for Saturday, July 27.

Improvement Adds to Challenge

Tom Sproull of Pittsburgh blasts out of the sand trap at No. 5 green during his round in the recent Memorial Day Golf Classic. The sand trap is one of three new traps added to the nine-hole course this year. Another trap was added to the left of this green and one placed to the right of No. 7.

While it may be difficult to think of the sand traps as part of Indian Lake's continuing improvement program, the refinements do make the 3,250-yard layout more challenging.

Sproull finished second in the tournament, one stroke behind Francis Cmar of Latrobe.

Golf Course Tunnel Installed Under Airport Runway

Construction of the new Arnold Palmer designed 18-hole championship golf course and new 4,000-foot paved airstrip at Indian Lake in Somerset County made a major advancement with the installation of a 120-foot long tunnel that will be used by golfers to safely travel under the runway as they move from No. 13 green to No. 14 tee. The tunnel was installed underneath the northeast end of the existing 3,000-foot runway and main taxiway to the new airstrip.

At 5-feet, 10-inches wide and 8-feet, 2-inches high, the tunnel will accommodate motorized golf carts. The inside bottom of the tunnel will be paved.

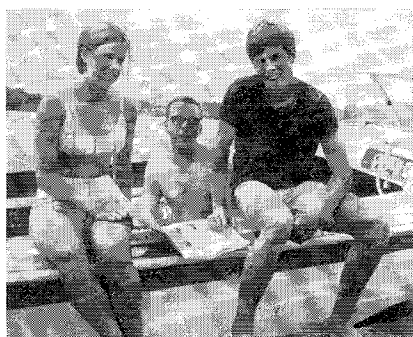

The 20,400-pound tunnel casing, made of 12-gauge corrugated structural steel, was put in place with the aid of a 6-yard dragline from Robert Glessner, contractor for the new runway.

Arnold Palmer designed the course so that the back nine holes would completely surround the airport complex. Construction of the new golf course began in 1966. It is expected to be completed by late 1970.

Construction of the new 4,000-foot paved runway is scheduled for completion this summer.

Water Ski Club Officers Meet

Indian Lake Water Ski Club has a full schedule of activities this summer beginning with the slalom championship Sunday, July 14. The water ski show will be held Sunday, July 28.

Call the Lodge at 754-4616 if you'd be interested in attending an 8-week Speed Reading Course this summer.
