Live Lobster Nights Will Be Continued

About 85 persons fought the first snow of the season in early November to attend the Live Lobster premiere at Indian Lake Lodge. Everything was prepared to perfection. Even the fresh fruit and cheese board was a delight to the eye as well as the palate.

Despite the stormy weather, the party was a great success and another live lobster night has been scheduled for Friday, January 16.

Please make reservations in advance so enough lobster can be made available for the evening. Of course, the regular Friday night menu also will be served.

Good Season For New Golf Course

Considering the number of rounds played on the back nine holes of the 18-hole championship golf course, it is safe to say that the idea to open the new course this past summer on just a preview basis for only fairway lot owners and permanent season pass holders was a good one.

A total of 583 nine hole rounds were played from July 17 to October 31, the period in which the course was made available for play. Those who played the course had highly favorable comments on the overall design, knowing full well that there is more work to be done before the course officially opens.

What kind of scores were recorded on the course? Francis Cmar, Indian Lake's club champion reportedly shot an even par 36, and also a 37. For many others, the tight fairways seemed to get the best of them as lost balls ran their scores to astronomical figures.

Nobody shot a hole-in-one, but big Mike Swank had an eagle on the par 4, 450-yard 14th hole, which was the No. 1 hole under the temporary playing conditions. Mike smacked his drive down the middle and then canned the second shot from about 180 yards out. He followed up his eagle with a birdie on No. 15 where his tee shot hit the flagstick. Mike said he didn't do so well on the other holes. His playing partner that day was Mearl Johnson.

Swim Classes To Be Held Over Holidays

There's little time left for those who wish to sign up for the lifesaving swimming course to be held at the Lodge during the upcoming holiday season.

Anyone who wants to be in the classes should be at the Lodge pool at 10 a.m., Saturday, December 20. Instructor Cheryl Stutzman will be there to meet everyone and get the program started. The course will consist of 15 two-hour classes. Cost for season pass holders is $15. It's $30 for anyone without a season pass.

Cheryl will also be available during the holidays for private swimming lessons.

Inclement weather, nightfall and airplane unavailability are no longer deterrents to those learning to fly at Indian Lake Air-Park. The flying school has the new Link flight trainer that permits most of its flight instruction to be done indoors. Stop at the Air-Park and see how easy it is to learn to fly.

Family Night Dinners Doing Well At Lodge; Other Nights Planned

Something new has been happening at Indian Lake Lodge. A series of family style dinners designed to fit the taste and pocketbook are being held every Wednesday evening in the Pub Lounge. The response and comments so far have been great.

For those Indian Lakers who live close by, or are visiting in the middle of the week, why not stop in for dinner. The atmosphere is nice and cozy with the fireplace going, color television, good company, good food . . . just an all-around pleasant evening. In no instance is the price more than $2 per person.

Everyone seems to be enjoying the idea. So, why not Friday night, too? Beginning Friday evening January 2, the Lodge will feature one item as the main dish, with a complete dinner included on a family style buffet. Once again the cost will not be more than $2. So, for those who don't want to cook Friday evening (at $2 per person at the Lodge, why bother?) dinner will be served from 6 to 9 p.m.. The time is early enough for skiers who want to get out on the slopes for the evening and late enough for those who must drive some distance to Indian Lake.

In addition, on Saturday evening the same type of family buffet will be served in the Pub from 5 to 7 p.m. for skiers. Same deal — one item — $2 or less.

The special family nights will continue as long as Indian Lakers want them.

SKI SLOPE HOURS

7 to 10 p.m. Tues., Wed., Thurs.; 7 to 11 p.m. Fri.; 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and 7 p.m. to 11 p.m., Saturday; 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. Sunday. Slopes closed on Monday. Slopes can be opened at other times for groups of 20 or more by previous appointment.
