FIRST LONG SUMMER WEEKEND

MEMORIAL DAY GOLF CLASSIC

FORE! . . . five—six—or more! It's time again to sharpen up your swing, polish your putter and wax your woods—the 2nd Annual Indian Lake Golf Classic is all set. Plans to come out and pit your skill against all the other Indian Lake residents who had a "ball" last year watching pert Polly Poorbaugh walk away with the honors.

The eighteen hole Memorial Day Tourney, unique in the fact that it features both men and women in equal competition, promises to be as much fun this year as it was last. To equalize all golfers in the Classic, the Callaway system of scoring is utilized. Under this system, any golfer can beat another on any given day and the results are sometimes surprising to say the least. The boys on the pro tour might pale and shudder, but in the Annual Classic, it's actually possible for a novice golfer to beat the beards off the old Pros who hold sway on Indian Lakes greens throughout the rest of the year.

The Memorial Day Classic has become a looked-forward-to event for all residents of Indian Lake because it points up the fact that golf is a fun game and should be enjoyed by everyone who plays, regardless of skill or sex. The ladies certainly appreciate a chance to get in there and match their skill with men, and the men . . . well, it can't be said they don't enjoy watching the ladies! It's been said that since women have taken such an interest in the game of golf, a lot of men have taken up the game as a spectator sport.

Last year's Memorial Day champion, Polly Poorbaugh, has issued a challenge to all Indian Lakers, men and women, duffers and pros alike, to challenge her defense of the championship this year and it will be interesting to see just who will be able to wrest the laurels away from the fair young lady. There have been murmurings around the Pro Shop lately that indicate a good deal of effort will be made, especially by other members of the female set.

Even if your game isn't what it should be (and whose is?), with the Callaway

IT'S IMPORTANT BOAT SAFETY

Indian Lake was developed to insure those who live by its shores an abundance of water fun with a minimum of restrictions. Freedom to use the lake as you please for boating, swimming, fishing or water skiing is an important part of the entire concept of our second-home community and it is imperative that such freedom not be limited because of a lack of safety it could possibly initiate.

Residents therefore are urged to promote their own sensible safety regulations in conjunction with the use of a boat along with observing the minimal standards set forth by state law. It is suggested that boat owners follow a code of safety and courtesy toward all skis, swimming or fishing.

Here are a few good suggestions on water-courtesy that will insure safety and good will if followed and it is hoped they will become a standard part of the code of neighborliness that exists at Indian Lake.

1. Don't pass slower craft closely at high speed. A strong wash of waves from your wake could upset an unsuspecting craft ahead of you.
2. Pass fishing parties in boats at a good distance so as not to spoil their sport with rough water conditions.
3. Be extremely careful when approaching a boat with a water skier in tow. If the skier is intent upon his sport he may not see you and make a wide turn from the towboat's wake into your path. A wide berth is always advisable.
4. Be ever alert to spot swimmers in your path. It's hard to see someone if only his head is above water, so always keep a sharp lookout, especially near shore.
5. If yours is a power craft be prepared to offer the right-of-way to sailing vessels and canoes. It's much more difficult for them to maneuver out of your path than it is for you to make clearance for them. Be a sportsman.
6. If you spot another craft obviously disabled in the water, stop and offer your aid. Even if it isn't needed the thought will always be remembered by your neighbors.
7. Don't dispose of waste overboard—especially non-sinkable items like bottles, picnic utensils, paper bags and the like. Let's all help in keeping our lake clean.
8. Try to avoid stopping your craft at major water intersections or towing skiers through the path of the same. Nothing is more unseemly or frustrating than getting into a traffic jam in the middle of the lake!
9. Don't leave it to your youngsters to make sure the proper safety equipment is aboard when they are using the craft alone. Check it yourself—you'll feel better and they'll be safer.
10. Be a good "skipper at all times. Follow the established "Rules of the Road" and observe the Pennsylvania Small Boat Safety Regulations.

SKILLED SERVICE AT LONG'S MARINA

In an effort to offer Indian Lake residents the best possible marine service, Long's Marina recently sponsored special schooling for two members of its staff.

The men chosen by Long's underwent small craft repair and maintenance courses, at a New York school, designed to give participants comprehensive knowledge in all phases of boat care. Long's Marina feels that it is now capable of giving Indian Lake boat owners the finest professional boating repair and maintenance service available for a wide area.

SOPHISTICATED SIPPING WINE TASTING PARTY JUNE 11

A palate pleasing party designed primarily for the edification of those Indian Lake dwellers who don't know the difference between Rhine or Bordeaux, port or burgundy, imported or domestic wines is scheduled at the Lodge for Saturday, June 11 between 5:00 and 6:30 P.M. Free wines of all types and distillage, plus an array of wonderful Hors D'Oeuvres, will be on hand for enjoyment and "investigative research" of all residents of Indian Lake. Maitre de, Nick Papasoff will be ready to fill the Bacchian Horn with almost any wine you can name and answer questions about wines or anything else that comes to mind at the fun fest. He promises there will be nothing missing except "sour grapes."

Make plans to be on hand to enjoy this voyage into the clouded science of the wine makers (and lovers) art. Aside from its purely educational aspects, the Wine Tasting Party promises to be more fun than a barrel of YOU-KNOW-WHAT.

system in effect, you'll be able to hook, slice and three putt all you like, if your handicap warrants it, and still come away with a good standing in the Indian Lake Memorial Day Golf Classic. Who knows, that "daisy-cutter" drive you've been trying to cure might develop just enough during the tourney to enable you to come up a winner. The important thing is it will be great fun for everyone.

When you make your plans for enjoying the summer's first long week-end at Indian Lake, be sure to include entering the Annual Memorial Day Golf Classic.

"TAKE TIME TO ARRIVE ALIVE"

To be on hand to enjoy the long Memorial Day weekend coming up, do just as the National Safety Council suggests, "take a little extra time on the highways" leading to Indian Lake in order to arrive safely. The highways will undoubtedly be full to overflowing with tourists and Indianapolis will not be the only place people will be racing.

If possible, plan to get an early start so that you may be off the road before the heavy rush hour traffic begins.

If you must leave Monday evening to get back to work Tuesday morning why not get a good rest after all the day's activities and leave a little later than you originally planned so that peak traffic periods will have passed and you will be fully alert while driving. Even if yours is only a comparatively short drive—"be realistic, don't be a statistic."

TWO BIG SOCIAL EVENTS PLANNED

SUMMER FORMAL

The huge success of both last fall's Harvest Ball and the recent Spring Formal, predicts the same turnout will be on hand to enjoy the upcoming Indian Lake Summer Formal Dance now being planned. Set for Saturday evening, June 18, the Summer Formal will include all the festive gaiety and color of the previously well-attended dances at Indian Lake, plus a few "summer extras."

A cool summer evening, good friends, and dancing with that favorite girl or guy in your life should be just the thing to start a happy summer season at the lake. Plan to attend and enjoy a good time. Remember, summer comes but once each year.

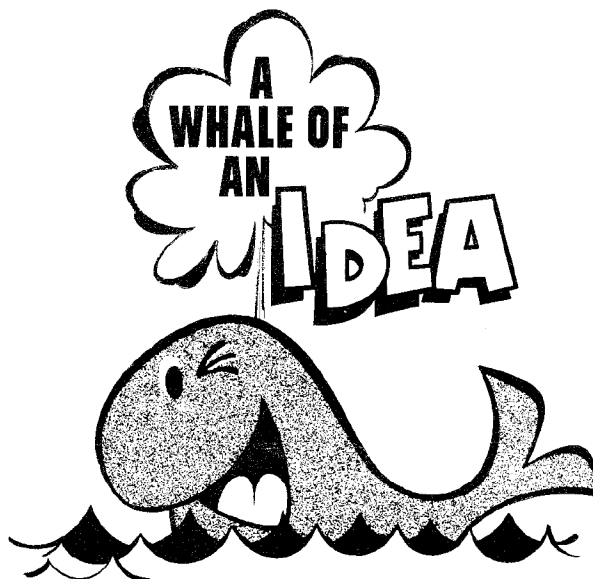

DIP AND DINE PARTY

Here we go again! Remember last February's great "Hawaiian Luau"? The idea was so good, another big "poolside blast" has been planned to follow.

A Dip and Dine Party that will feature all the fun of February's Luau will be held at the Lodge pool Saturday, June 25. Restless natives are invited to cool off in the pool and join the buffet style feast. All poolside paraphernalia, such as ukuleles, bongo drums and straw hats will be welcomed. Bathing suits, grass skirts or sarongs will be the uniform of the day. C'mon over and have a big splash! $2.75 per native.

FOR KIDS ONLY

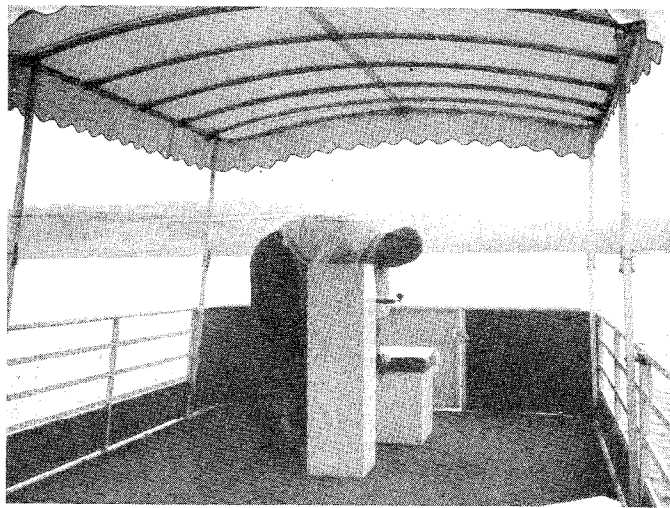

PONTOON BOAT CRUISE

YO HO HO AND A BOTTLE OF POP! It's time for the kids to go "down to the sea in ships" — well, not quite, but there's fun and adventure in store for the young'uns on an afternoon tour around the lake in a pontoon boat.

A fully supervised kiddie-cruise, scheduled for Sunday, June 12, will leave Long's Marina promptly at 1:30 P.M. Refreshments will be served by the "crew" and fun will be the order of the day.

Make reservations for the kids with Nick Papasoff, Maitre de at the lodge. Cost of the cruise is only $1.00 per person and includes everything. Be sure to have the kids attend and be ready for a few "sea-stories" when they dock.

Ozzie Livengood, alias "Captain Kids," gets the pontoon boat "ship-shape" for the forthcoming children's cruise around Indian Lake.

NEW GUEST PROGRAM IN FULL SWING

The Indian Lake New Guest Program which is designed to encourage residents to introduce their friends and neighbors to the advantages of second home living is now in full swing.

The New Guest Program enables a resident to introduce new guests to the lake without any cost to himself or the guest and by doing so, be eligible for a very worthwhile gift certificate.

In order to participate, any resident who would like to see one of his friends or neighbors become part of the Indian Lake community, has simply to notify the Indian Lake Lodge of his guests arrival. Guests may be welcomed any day or night Tuesday through Sunday.

Passes will be made ready for the party and upon arrival, the guests will be treated to a completely free fun-filled day. All the facilities of the lake will be at their disposal. Lake management will pick up all the costs of husband and wife guests who golf, ski, swim and dine. In addition, it will also pay the costs of the guests children who swim.

If the guest, upon enjoying the exciting vacation-like atmosphere of Indian Lake, decides to purchase a lot, the resident who was responsible for his introduction will receive a $110.00 gift certificate, good for any purchase at Indian Lake.

Through this program, Indian Lake hopes to draw the type of fine residents who are responsible for the present spirit of good will and neighborliness that now exists in the second-home community. After all, who is better qualified to choose their neighbors but the residents of Indian Lake themselves?

Residents wishing to participate in the New Guest Program should make their reservations in advance by phone or letter, especially for Saturday night dinner. Guest passes are to be picked up at the office.

Plan to join in the effort to make Indian Lake an even better place to live and relax by inviting your friends to sample our brand of fun and recreation under the New Guest Program.

RULES OF PARTICIPATION

1. Offer is limited to residents of Indian Lake and Lake Stonycreek only.
2. The same guest may be introduced under this program only once during the year 1966.
